

Community College

India is in need of an education system, which is affordable, flexible and relevant to the individuals as well as the society. Skilled workforce, managers and entrepreneurs are in great demand. Moreover, the skill-oriented courses available in the market have low creditability and acceptability in the industry. Recognizing this scenario, the UGC has introduced the concept of community colleges to offer skill oriented courses, which can be accessed by underprivileged students.

The 12th Five Year Plan Document of the Planning Commission has laid a special emphasis on expansion of skill-based programmes in higher education. It recommends setting up of Community Colleges (CC) to serve multiple needs, including

Career oriented education and skills to students interested in directly entering the workforce;

- Contracted training and education programmes for local employers
- High-touch remedial education for secondary school graduates not ready to enroll in traditional Colleges, giving them a path to transfer to three or four year institutions
- General interest courses to the community for personal development and interest. The Plan Document also states that Community Colleges will be located to afford easy access to underprivileged students and such colleges could either be established as affiliated colleges of universities or as entirely autonomous institutions.
